The doctor had just been buried, his friends and family started toward their cars. However, they stopped because a strange, eerie sound suddenly was heard from the grave. As the guests looked around, a colleague of the deceased said, "It's nothing....just his beeper."

"Say," said the drunk, "do lemons have wings?"

"George is so forgetful," the sales manager complained to his secretary. "It's a wonder he can sell anything. I asked him to bring some sandwiches on his way back from lunch, and I'm not sure he'll even remember to come back."

Just then the door flew open, and in bounced George.

"You'll never guess what happened to me at lunch," he said, I met old man Brown, who hasn't bought anything from us in 5 years. Well, we got talking and he gave me a half-million dollar order!"

"See, I told you he'd forget the sandwiches," the manager replied.

A football coach was asked his secret of evaluating raw recruits.

A dog followed his master to school. His owner is a fourth grader at a public elementary school. However, when the bell rang, the dog sidled inside the building and made it all the way to the child's classroom before the teacher noticed and shoo'd him out side. The dog sat down, whimpered and stared at the closed door. Then GOD appeared beside the dog, patted his head, and said. "Don't feel bad fella'.... They won't let ME in either."

A man, who had reached the age of 105, suddenly stopped going to church. Alarmed by the old fellow's absence after so many yrs. Of faithful attendance, the Minister went to see him. He found him in excellent health, so the Minister asked, "How come after all these yrs. We don't see you at services anymore?" The old man lowered his voice. "I'll tell you," he whispered. "When I got to be 90, I expected God to take me any day. But then I got to be 95, then 100, then 105. So, I figured that God is very busy and must've forgotten about me, and I don't want to remind him!"
